In Grateful Recognition . . .

We, as fellow Americans and representatives of the citizens of Redlands, commemorating the Declaration of Independence for these our United States on this fourth day of July 1980, wish to express our sincere appreciation and everlasting indebtedness.

We would commend and hold in highest honor

ST. MARY'S BALLET FOLKLORICO

who, believing in the equality of all men, and in serving our country, did unselfishly sacrifice of himself that all men, everywhere, might obtain for themselves, and their posterity, the fruits of Man's unalienable Rights — LIFE, LIBERTY, and FREEDOM.
